CAN I FILE NOMINATION PAPERS FOR MORE THAN ONE OFFICE AT THE SAME ELECTION?

Yes, with three exceptions:

1. Primary Elections - Elections Code §8003(b) prohibits filing nomination papers in the direct primary for a party nomination and an independent nomination for the same office, or for more than one office at the same election. This prohibition does not apply to a party central committee. (Moore vs. Panish - California Supreme Court)
2. School District Elections - Elections Code §10603(c)(d) prohibits a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office, including a county board of education office, at the same election. Except, if there is a proposal to form a unified school district on the same ballot as the election of governing board members of that district, any candidate for a position on the existing governing board may also file nomination papers for a position on the governing board for the proposed district.
3. District Offices - Elections Code §10510 prohibits a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office or term of office for the same district at the same election.

IF I AM ELECTED, CAN I HOLD MORE THAN ONE OFFICE AT THE SAME TIME?

This is a legal question which the County Clerk-Recorder cannot answer. The County Clerk-Recorder cannot refuse to issue nomination papers unless it is prohibited as stated in the first question above. A person's legal right to hold more than one office at the same time is governed by common law doctrine of incompatible offices. Government Code §1099 was added January 1, 2006 to codify this common law rule. This new section states: a) that an officer shall not simultaneously hold two public offices that are incompatible, as defined, and 2) when two public offices are incompatible, a public officer shall be deemed to have forfeited the first office upon acceding to the second.

There are numerous court cases and attorney general opinions which address specific situations of incompatible offices. There is a list of case cites and copies of several of the opinions in the County Clerk-Recorder's Office that you may request; however, this is not an exhaustive list of all available information and you are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the incompatibility of the offices.

CANDIDATE FILING

File between the dates of December 30, 2005 and February 23, 2006

A candidate may submit a petition containing signatures of registered voters in-lieu of paying the filing fee in order to run for office. The signatures submitted may cover all or a portion of the filing fee. Signers on the Petitions In-Lieu must be of the same party affiliation as the candidate, unless that candidate's party has notified the Secretary of State by no later than January 22, 2006, that they will allow unaffiliated voters to vote in their primary. Candidates seeking the nomination of one of the minor parties (American Independent, Green, Libertarian, Natural Law or Peace and Freedom) may use the provisions of Elections Code Section 8106(a)(6) and collect a lesser amount of signatures but the signers must all be of the same party affiliation as the candidate.

Circulators of petitions in-lieu shall be registered voters in the jurisdiction in which the candidate is to be voted upon. The circulator shall only serve in the county in which he or she resides. The circulator(s) shall fill in the Affidavit of Circulator portion in their own hand. We will not accept for filing any petition in-lieu section unless the Affidavit of Circulator section is filled in completely.

No additional signatures may be filed after the filing date, but supplemental signatures may be filed to replace signatures in the original filing that were found to be invalid.

That portion of the filing fee not covered by the signatures must be paid in full before the nomination documents may be filed.

Petitions in-lieu shall be filed with the elections official of the county in which the petitions were circulated.

Petition In-Lieu of Filing Fee and/or Nomination Paper - EC Sec 8020, 8040-8041, 8061-8062

If a candidate submits a petition in-lieu of filing fee, the candidate may request that the elections official count all valid signatures appearing on the petition toward the number of signatures required on the nomination paper, provided the signers are registrants of the same party as the candidate. If the petition in-lieu of filing fee contains the requisite number of valid signatures required for the nomination paper, the candidate is not required to circulate and file a nomination paper. If the petition in-lieu of filing fee does not contain the requisite number of valid signatures required for the nomination paper the candidate may still circulate and file a nomination paper to be signed by qualified registered voters of his or her party during the nomination period.

The candidate may request the elections official to apply the number of valid signatures on the petition in-lieu toward, and combine them with, the valid number of signatures on the nomination paper to satisfy the signature requirement for the office.

All candidates for offices at the direct primary election must file a Declaration of Candidacy and Nomination Papers with the elections official. Candidates may file a Declaration of Candidacy for only one office. The candidate shall execute the Declaration of Candidacy in the office of the elections official.

Circulators of Nomination Papers shall be voters in the district or political subdivision in which the candidate is to be voted upon and shall fill in the Affidavit of Circulator in their own hand. We will not accept for filing any nomination paper unless the Affidavit of Circulator section is filled in completely.

No more signers shall be secured for any candidate than the maximum number allowed. The nomination paper shall be filed with the elections official of the county in which the signers reside and are registered voters.

If the incumbent of the office does not file by March 10, 2006, the filing period will be extended until March 15, 2006, for any person other than the incumbent to file nomination documents. There shall be no extension of the filing period if the incumbent has already served the maximum number of terms permitted for that office.

Write-In Candidates - EC Sec 8600 - 8605

Primary Election - File between the dates of April 10, 2006 and May 23, 2006

To be a write-in candidate a person must file a Statement of Write-In Candidacy and Nomination Papers with the requisite number of signatures as required for the office.

Signers on the nomination papers shall be voters in the district or political subdivision in which the candidate is to be voted on and for a Primary Election shall be registered with the political party the nomination of which the candidate is seeking. A write-in candidate need not be registered with the party whose nomination he or she is seeking. There is no party affiliation requirement for signers of write-in nomination papers in the General Election.

There is no filing fee to be a write-in candidate.

In order to be nominated to any partisan office at the Primary election, the write-in candidate must receive more votes than any other candidate running for that party's nomination, and must also receive vote equal to at least 1% of all votes cast for that office at the last preceding General Election at which the office was filled.

Independent Candidates - EC Sec 8300 - 8550

Only candidates running as members of one of California's seven qualified political parties are eligible to participate in the primary election process. To provide a method for the nomination of non-partisan candidates to partisan public offices, the independent nomination provisions of the California Elections Code were established. There is no limit on the number of independent candidates who can be nominated and placed on the ballot at the general election, provided each meets the legal requirements.

To be eligible as an independent candidate at the General Election, the potential candidate:

1. Cannot have filed as a partisan candidate at the primary election and have been defeated for the party's nomination at that primary election; and,
2. Cannot have been registered to vote in California since October 7, 2005, as being affiliated with a qualified political party (i.e., Democratic, Republican, American Independent, Green, Libertarian, Natural Law, or Peace and Freedom). EC Sec 8550(f)

The nomination signature requirement for persons seeking an independent candidacy is based on the previous general election's registration figures. Depending on the office sought, nomination papers must be signed by either at least one or three percent of the number of registered voters in the election jurisdiction as of October 18, 2004 - see chart below.

No title or degree shall appear on the same line on a ballot as a candidate’s name, either before or after the candidate’s name, in the case of any election to any office.

The elections official shall not accept a designation if any of the following is true:

1. It would mislead the voter.
2. It would suggest an evaluation of a candidate, such as outstanding, leading, expert, or virtuous.
3. It abbreviates the word “retired” or places it following any word or words which it modifies.
4. It uses a word or prefix, such as “former” or “ex-”, which means a prior status.
5. Use of the word “retired” is limited for use by individuals who have permanently given up their chosen principal profession, vocation or occupation.
6. Contains commercial identification, such as IBM President.
7. It uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.
8. It uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious or ethnic group.
9. It refers to any activity prohibited by law.

If the elections official rejects a designation the candidate shall be notified and the candidate shall, within three days of receipt of the notice, appear before the elections official or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide an alternate designation. In the event the candidate fails to provide an alternate designation, no designation shall appear under the candidate's name.

The designation shall not be changed, except as provided above, after the final date for filing nomination papers. The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both the primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 98 days prior to the general election (August 1, 2006), requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

The designation shall be printed in 8-point roman uppercase and lowercase type except that, if the designation selected is so long that it would conflict with the space requirements, a sufficiently smaller type size shall be used for the designation for each candidate for that office.

The term "profession" means a field of employment requiring special education or skill and requiring specific knowledge of a particular discipline of learning or science. The labor and skill involved in a profession is predominantly mental or intellectual, rather than physical or manual - attorney, physician, accountant, or teacher.

The term "vocation" means a trade, a religious calling, or the work upon which a person, in most but not all cases, relies on for his or her livelihood - minister, plumber, homemaker, or carpenter.

The term "occupation" means the employment in which one regularly engages or follows as the means of making a livelihood - rancher, salesperson, secretary, police officer, or construction worker.

The following types of activities are distinguished from professions, vocations and occupations and are not acceptable for ballot designations:

Casual or occasional activity, diversion or hobby pursued principally for enjoyment and in addition to the candidate's principal profession, vocation or occupation, such as volunteer work or social activities.

Positions held which consume little or no time and which, are voluntary or for which the candidate is not compensated, such as honorary sheriff, volunteer firefighter, honorary chairperson, goodwill ambassador or official host or hostess.

A status is a state, condition, social position or legal relation of the candidate to another person, persons or the community as a whole, such as philanthropist, activist, patriot, taxpayer, concerned citizen, husband, wife and the like.

The statement may include the name, age and occupation of the candidate and a brief description of no more than 200 words, of the candidate's education and qualifications expressed by the candidate in his or her own words (first person singular). Each candidate availing himself or herself of this service will be required to pay an estimated deposit at the time the statement is filed to cover the cost of the printing and handling. The estimated deposit amount is an approximation of the actual cost and may be significantly more or less than the estimate, depending on the actual number of candidates filing statements. Accordingly, the elections official is not bound by the estimate and will bill the candidate for additional actual expense or refund any excess amount paid depending on the final actual cost.

The Candidate's Statement of Qualifications shall remain confidential until after the close of the nomination period and then there will be a 10-day public examination period.

COMMITTEE TREASURERS

Every Recipient Committee Must Have a Treasurer

Under California's Political Reform Act, a person or organization that receives contributions totaling $1,000 or more in a calendar year to support or oppose state or local candidates or ballot measures qualifies as a "recipient committee" and must have a treasurer. No contributions may be accepted and no expenditures may be made without a treasurer.

The treasurer is responsible for:

- Filing the committee's statement of organization (Form 410) and termination of the committee;
- Establishing and maintaining a record keeping system that ensures the committee complies with the Act's disclosure requirements;
- Verifying and signing the committee's campaign statements and filing them on time;
- Correcting inaccuracies or omissions that may occur.

Anyone may act as a committee treasurer. A candidate may serve as his or her own committee treasurer. However, no individual should accept the position of committee treasurer as a mere figurehead. If errors or omissions occur in a committee's record keeping and reporting, the treasurer will often be a named party in any resulting enforcement action and may be held personally liable. A committee may appoint one assistant treasurer on its statement of organization to act in place of the treasurer if he or she is unavailable.

To adequately perform his or her duties, a committee treasurer must have a understanding of the law and the treasurer's responsibilities.

Treasurer's Responsibilities

Registration

A recipient committee must register under the Act by filing a statement of organization (Form 410) within 10 days of receiving contributions totaling $1,000 in a calendar year. The committee treasurer must sign the form and see that it is filed on time.

On the Form 410, the committee provides basic information about the committee (such as its name, address, and principal officers) and identifies the individual who will act as the committee's treasurer. If any of the information on the statement of organization changes, the treasurer must file an amendment within 10 days.

If a committee qualifies during the 16 days before an election, or if certain information about the committee (e.g., the name of the committee, the committee treasurer) changes during that period, an amendment to the statement of organization must be filed within 24 hours.

Record Keeping and Reporting

The treasurer is responsible for the timely and accurate filing of campaign disclosure reports with the appropriate state and/or local filing officers. To accomplish this, the treasurer must see that complete and accurate records of receipts and expenditures are maintained from the very beginning of the committee's operations.

The treasurer is required to maintain the records personally or monitor committee support staff or others that actually perform the record keeping duties. The treasurer must also prepare the campaign statements personally or carefully review the campaign statements and records prepared by other. If required information is missing, it is the treasurer's responsibility to obtain it. The treasurer must also monitor compliance with the Act's restrictions on cash contributions, cash expenditures, and with federal and local campaign laws.

All reports and statements must be signed by the treasurer or assistant treasurer.

Candidate Controlled Committees

A candidate or officeholder who controls a committee must make sure the treasurer is adequately performing his or her required duties. If the candidate or officeholder knows or has reason to know the treasurer is not performing adequately, he or she must replace the treasurer or bring the treasurer's performance up to required standards. A controlling candidate or officeholder must sign the committee's campaign statements, verifying that the treasurer has used all reasonable diligence in preparing them.

PROVISIONS OF THE CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

as found in Chapter 5 of Division 20 of the California Elections Code

Chapter 5. Fair Campaign Practices

Article 1. General Intent

20400. Intent of legislature.

The Legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to encourage every candidate for public office in this state to subscribe to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign Practices is to give voters guidelines in determining fair play and to encourage candidates to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

Article 2. Definitions (1)

As used in this chapter, "Code" means the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

Article 3. Code of Fair Campaign Practices

20440. Subscription to code; form.

At the time an individual is issued his or her declaration of candidacy, nomination papers, or any other paper evidencing an intention to be a candidate for public office, the elections official, shall give the individual a blank form of the code and a copy of this chapter. The elections official shall inform each candidate for public office that subscription to the code is voluntary.

In the case of a committee making an independent expenditure as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, the Secretary of State shall provide a blank form and a copy of this chapter to the individual filing, in accordance with Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, an initial campaign statement on behalf of the committee.

20441. Supply of forms.

The Secretary of State shall print, or cause to be printed, blank forms of the code. The Secretary of State shall supply the forms to the elections officials in quantities and at times requested by the elections officials.

20442. Retention of forms; public inspection.

The elections official shall accept, at all times prior to the election, all completed forms that are properly subscribed to by a candidate for public office and shall retain them for public inspection until 30 days after the election.

Every code subscribed to by a candidate for public office pursuant to this chapter is a public record open for public inspection.

20444. Voluntary.

In no event shall a candidate for public office be required to subscribe to or endorse the code.

(1) 304. "Campaign advertising or communication" means a communication authorized by a candidate or a candidate's controller committee, as defined in section 82016 of the Government Code, or by a committee making independent expenditures, as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, or by a committee formed primarily to support or oppose a ballot measure, as defined in Section 82047.5 of the Government Code, for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of a qualified candidate through any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, outdoor advertising facility, direct mailing, or any other type general, public, political advertising.

305. "Candidate for public office" means an individual who has qualified to have his or her name listed on the ballot of any election, or who has qualified to have written votes on his or behalf counted by election officials, for nomination for or election to, any state, regional, county, municipal, or district office which is filled at an election. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to candidates for federal office.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of California has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional right to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

(1) I SHALL CONDUCT my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponents or political parties which merit such criticism.

(2) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his or her personal or family life.

(3) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, national origin, physical health status, or age.

(5) I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.

Information Sheet Concerning Candidate\Officeholder Bank Accounts

Candidates and officeholders must establish a campaign bank account for each office for which a Candidate Intention, Form 501 has been filed. The campaign bank account must be established at a financial institution located in California. All contributions designated for a particular account or committee must be deposited into the appropriate campaign bank account.

EXCEPTION:

- If both of the following conditions are met, filing of Form 501, and establishment of a campaign bank account, are not required:
 - The officeholder or candidate will not be receiving contributions from others; and
 - The only expenditures to be made will come from the officeholder or candidate's personal funds for the filing fee and/or the statement of qualifications that will appear in the voter pamphlet.

Expenditures

Candidates may not make campaign-related expenditures from personal funds. A candidate's personal funds that will be used to pay campaign-related expenses must be deposited into the appropriate campaign bank account prior to making the expenditure.

EXCEPTION:

- An officeholder or candidate may use personal funds to pay for the candidate filing fee and statement of qualifications prior to filing Form 501.

All campaign related expenses for election to a future term of office must be paid from the campaign bank account established for that election. Such expenses include payments for:

- Campaign strategic planning and fundraising expenses.
- Services and actual expenses of outside political consultants, the campaign treasurer, other staff, pollsters, and other persons who provide services directly in connection with the election.
- Voter registration and get-out-the-vote drives.
- Payments for mass mailings, political advertising, opinion polls or surveys, and other communications in connection with the election. Such payments are considered to be "in connection with election to a future term of office" if the payment:

--Is for a communication that makes reference to the officeholder's future election or status as a candidate; or

--Is made in the three months prior to an election for which the officeholder has done any of the following: filed a Candidate Intention statement, Form 501, filed a declaration of candidacy or nomination papers with an election official, or filed any other documents necessary to be listed on the ballot for a state or local elective office.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- A campaign bank account established for election to a specific office may be used to pay officeholder-related expenses in connection with that office.
- For each campaign bank account into which contributions totaling $1,000 in a calendar year are deposited (including the candidates personal funds), a recipient committee Statement of Organization, Form 410, must be filed.
- There is no relationship between the filing of a Candidate Intention statement, Form 501, and the committee's identification number. To obtain a committee identification number, file a Statement of Organization, Form 410, with the Secretary of State's office.

Savings Accounts, Credit Accounts, and Petty Cash Funds

Savings Accounts

A candidate may transfer funds from a campaign bank account to certificates of deposit, interest-bearing savings accounts, money market funds, or similar accounts. Such funds must come from a campaign bank account designated for a specific office and must be deposited into investment accounts established only for this office.

Prior to the deposit of contributions and other funds into an investment account, such monies must be deposited into the appropriate campaign bank account. Before expenditure, the funds must be redeposited into the same campaign bank account.

Credit Accounts

A candidate may establish one or more credit accounts for each campaign bank account. A single credit card, however, may not be designated for more than one campaign bank account. In addition, payment of charges that have accrued on a credit account must be made only from the appropriate campaign bank account.

A candidate may designate an existing personal credit card with a zero balance to be his/her campaign bank account credit card, but personal expenses may not, thereafter, be charged to that account until after the election. Once the account has been paid back down to zero, the account may be redesignated a personal credit account.

Petty Cash Funds

A candidate may establish, for each campaign bank account and for each campaign office, one petty cash fund based on the following conditions:

- No more than $100 may be held in a petty cash fund at any one time.
- No expenditure that totals $100 or more may be made from the petty cash fund.
- Expenditures of less than $100 from petty cash funds are deemed to be expenditures from the campaign bank account.
- The fund may be used only for expenses associated with the candidate's election to the specific office or for the expenses of holding the office for which the petty cash fund was established.

Reimbursements of Expenses

If an officeholder or candidate's personal funds will be used to pay campaign-related expenses, then such funds must be deposited into the appropriate campaign bank account prior to expenditure. Officeholders and candidates may not use personal funds to pay campaign-related expenses and then later receive reimbursement.

Volunteers, paid employees of the candidate's controlled committee, and agents or independent contractors, such as campaign consultants or advertising agents, may be reimbursed for goods, services, or travel expenses under certain specified conditions:

- Agents and independent contractors must have a written contract with the candidate or the committee that provides for reimbursement of expenditures.
- The committee treasurer must be provided with a dated receipt and a written description of each expenditure prior to reimbursement.
- Reimbursement must be paid within 45 calendar days of the date the expenses were incurred.

If reimbursements are not made within this 45 calendar day period, the expenditure will be considered a non-monetary contribution to the candidate or committee.

An officeholder may use personal funds and receive reimbursement for officeholder expenses as long as:

- The committee treasurer is provided with a dated receipt and written description of the expense;
- Reimbursement is made within 90 calendar days after the officeholder incurs the expense in the case of a monetary expenditure, or within 90 calendar days of the expenditure charged to a credit card or charge account; and
- Reimbursements are made from the appropriate campaign bank account.

Bank Account Redesignation

Officeholders/candidates are required to establish a separate bank account for each elective office for which they intend to solicit or receive funds. Officeholders/candidates may not have two campaign bank accounts established for the same election. Candidates seeking more than one elective office simultaneously must establish one campaign bank account and one controlled committee for each office the candidate is seeking.

Officeholders may redesignate a campaign bank account established for a current term of office as a campaign bank account for their future election if they are seeking election to the SAME office. The account may be redesignated even if the account holds campaign funds or outstanding debts from the previous election. Officeholders redesignating a campaign bank account must file a new Candidate Intention statement (Form 501) for the next election to indicate the new election date.

An officeholder who re-designates a campaign bank account for re-election is required to file an amended Form 410, Statement of Organization.

Officeholders or candidates seeking election to a Different office may not redesignate a bank account. Instead, the officeholder/candidate is required to establish a new bank account for the future election and file an "Initial" Statement of Organization, Form 410.

An unsuccessful candidate intending to seek election to the same office may maintain the same bank account and redesignate the account by amending his/her Statement of Organization, Form 410 indicating the new election date.

Important: Defeated candidates who do not redesignate leftover funds by the end of the semi-annual period in which the election was held may not use the funds for any future election. Leftover funds from the election become surplus funds at the end of the semi-annual period.

Prior to the end of the semi-annual period, an unsuccessful candidate intending to use leftover funds for election to a different office must establish a new campaign bank account, transfer the funds to the new account and file an "Initial" Form 410 Statement of Organization indicating the new account and office sought. A Form 410 showing termination of the old bank account and committee should also be filed. In both situations, the candidate must establish a new campaign bank account prior to receiving any new contributions for the future election.

Transfers Between a Candidate's Campaign Bank Accounts

Except as explained below, an officeholder or candidate with more than one campaign bank account or controlled committee may transfer funds from one account/committee to another.

Exceptions to this provision include:

- Special Election Committees: When an officeholder or candidate is being voted upon in a special election (an election to fill an office which has become vacant), funds may be transferred from an account set up for a regular election to an account opened for the special election as long as the transfer does not result in a violation of the contribution limits.
- Surplus Campaign Funds:
 - Defeated officeholders and candidates who are defeated in an election may transfer campaign funds to an account set up for a future election as long as the transfer is made prior to leaving office or prior to the end of the semi-annual period, whichever is later. For example, a non-incumbent candidate who loses an election held during the first six months of 1994, and who wishes to use leftover funds for a future election, must transfer the funds to a new election account prior to July 1, 1994.
 - Officeholders who leave office may transfer funds to an account set up for a future election as long as the transfer is made prior to leaving office.

For disclosure purposes, the committee that makes the transfer should disclose the transfer as an expenditure on Form 460, Schedule E. The committee that receives the transfer should disclose it as an increase to cash on Form 460, Schedule I. Candidates transferring funds to a special election committee must also itemize amounts transferred from individual contributors on Attachment Schedule A-1.

A candidate may transfer a debt (loan or accrued expense) between committees established for the same office. However, a debt may not be transferred between committees established for different elections or from a special election committee to a committee established for a regular election. A footnote indicating that a debt is transferred should be made on both committee campaign statements.

Receipt of Undesignated Contributions

If a candidate who is soliciting contributions for more than one office receives a contribution that is not designated for a specific office, the candidate may deposit the contribution in any of his/her campaign bank accounts for which the candidate has filed Form 501. A monetary contribution must be deposited in the campaign bank account to which it is allocated within 30 days of receipt. A non-monetary contribution must be allocated to a particular committee within 30 days of receipt or by the deadline for the reporting period in which it is received, whichever is earlier. The contribution must be disclosed on the campaign statement covering the period during which the contribution was received.

Dear Candidate or Committee Member:

As a candidate or campaign worker for either office or a ballot measure, this reminder about State Law governing campaign signs should be helpful to you.

Section 5405.3 of the State Outdoor Advertising Act authorizes the placing of "temporary political signs" separate and apart from the normal outdoor advertising display controls. No such political signs, however, may be placed within the right-of-way of any highway or within 660' of the edge of and visible from the right-of-way of a landscaped freeway.

Temporary political signs are signs, which meet the following criteria:

- A. Encourages a particular vote in a scheduled election.
- B. Is placed not sooner than 90 days prior to the scheduled election and is removed within 10 days after that election.
- C. Is no larger than 32 square feet.
- D. Has had a Statement of Responsibility filed with the Department certifying a person who will be responsible for removing the sign..

A Statement of Responsibility form is attached to this letter.

Please pass this information along to those assisting in your campaign and complete and return the Statement of Responsibility form to the appropriate district office located in your area. We will gladly answer any questions regarding the form.

Because the law directs the Department of Transportation to remove signs that do not comply with the regulations before an election and to bill the responsible party for removal costs after the election, we are calling these provisions to your attention to avoid possible embarrassment to you and your supporters.
